

History

2020	100 percent takeover of Eisenwerk Bassum GmbH
2019	Participation in the nuclear technology specialist Höfer & Bechtel GmbH
2017	August 1st: Interim Storage Activities transferred to the State in the course of the reorganisation of the responsibility for nuclear waste management in Germany
2017	January: Merger of the former GNS subsidiary Acta into GNS
2014	Loading of the 1.000th CASTOR® in Germany
2011	Relocation to the new headquarters
2010	Manufacturing of the 5.000th MOSAIK®-cask
2009	October: Acquisition of Acta as a wholly-owned subsidiary
1995	First CASTOR® put into storage at the interim storage facility Gorleben
1992	First CASTOR® put into storage at the interim storage facility Ahaus
1985	Commissioning of the plant at Duisburg
1985	Storage licence CASTOR® V/21 for USA
1984	First LLW put into the interim storage facility at Gorleben
1983	First CASTOR® loaded and stored at Paul-Scherrer-Institut in Switzerland
1978	Development of the first CASTOR®-cask and first drop tests
1977	Development of the first MOSAIK®-cask
1977	GNT is renamed to GNS Gesellschaft für Nuklear-Service mbH
1974	GNT Gesellschaft für Nukleartransporte was founded in Essen/Germany